

Indiana's Do Not Call law is a godsend. It should be the model for the nation rather than being watered down as is being pushed by some of the "existing businesses". If I need any help from an existing business, I'll call them. I do not wish to have my peace interrupted by telephone harrassment!

Eric